Chapter 1 by April Janzen

I was sad and lonely when suddenly my phone rang. It was an anonymous caller. I decided to pick it up. "Hello," I answered.

"Hello, my name is Kevin. Umm...would you like me to drive you to Hollywood, California, and we can learn more about each other," he said.

"What do you mean "learn more about each other?" I responded.

"Oh. Sorry. Don't you remember? I was a friend in your 5th grade class." Kevin responded back to me.

"Kevin?! What are you doing here?" I said, all excited.

"Yeah, now you're getting to know me. Anyway, I'm at my house. I was starting to get bored, so I called you and maybe you know go somewhere." Says Kevin.

"Yeah sure! Umm... I'll be waiting in my car, okay?" I answered back, happy that I have someone to talk to.

I went to grab my coat and went to the front door. "Are you ready?" He says.

"Yeah I got everything." Kevin led me to his car and opened up the passenger door for me.

"Thank you! You're being so kind." I say. "You're welcome. I was wondering if you like watching Dexter? I like watching Dexter. And they have a new series on."

"Yeah I like watching Dexter. I would love to see him in real life. Speaking of real life, I need to show you songs in real life." I said rummaging through my purse to find my phone.

While he drives to Hollywood, California, he tells me something under his breath but I couldn't make it out. "What did you say?"

"Oh I said we can hang out make our own birthday parties for each other," Kevin says.

"Yeah that sounds awesome!" I say, really happy.

"Well we're here," Kevin says.

"WOW! It looks more better than my hometown. Hey, um, you wouldn't mind if we got to see Adam Lambert would you?" I said, being shy saying Adam's name in front of my friend.

"Oh yeah I wouldn't mind, besides that was the reason I wanted you to come with me to his concert tonight. Guess what songs he'll be singing?" Kevin says.

"Oh! My! Gosh! You brought me just for that. How did you know? and I don't know. What songs?" I say excited.

"The way I knew was...remember that All about me thing that we had to do in 7th and 8th grade. Well I remember your favorite idol, and it's Adam Lambert. Oh and the songs he will be singing are For Your Entertainment, Ghost Town, If I Had You, Sleepwalker, and Runnin'." Says Kevin, as he turns into a restaurant called Kitty's Cafe. As we pull up, I see someone that looks like Adam. Guess what? It was Adam Lambert.

"Oh my god, it is you." I said walking up to him. "You're my favorite singer. Can I just say something?"

"Why yes you may." He said.

"I love you! Love your singing, style, and your hot body." I said, smiling with a light laugh.

"Umm...should we get going? Cindy?" Kevin says.

"Oh sorry, I got too caught in Adam's eyes," I said. "Well see you up on stage then."

"I guess." Said Adam, in a kinda okay face.
